

Chemical Dependency Course

- I. Alcohol
 - a. Explain what alcoholism is
 - b. Nicknames associated
 - c. Explain behaviors associated with alcoholism
 - d. How does law enforcement measure alcoholism in teens?
 - e. Consequences involved with alcoholism
 - f. Explain what heroin withdrawals look like and the consequences involved
 - g. How would the student be able to determine that alcohol is an issue for them?

- II. Cocaine
 - a. Explain what Cocaine is
 - b. Nicknames associated
 - c. Difference between cocaine and crack
 - d. How do most people use cocaine?
 - e. Explain symptoms involved with cocaine consumption
 - f. How would the student be able to determine that cocaine is an issue for them?

- III. Methamphetamines
 - a. Explain what are methamphetamines
 - b. Nicknames associated
 - c. Explain symptoms associated with cocaine
 - d. Explain the dangerous process involved with creating meth
 - e. How would the student be able to determine that meth is an issue for them?

- IV. Heroin/Opioid prescription pain killers
 - a. Explain what heroin is
 - b. Nicknames associated
 - c. How some people tend to use heroin (administration method)
 - d. Heroin in 2020 (trends)
 - e. Explain how the heroin epidemic came about in the U.S.
 - f. Cycle of heroin addiction (what does it include)
 - g. Overdoses
 - h. Explain what opioid prescription pain killers are and how people become addicted
 - i. How would the student be able to determine that heroin/prescription pain killers are an issue
 - j. Programs and resources that can be used if someone believes that they may know someone with a chemical dependency issue. (National hotline).

- a.