

Point of View

Directions: Look at the illustration below. What do you think is happening? In the space below, identify what you think is happening. Compare your point of view (perspective) with others in the class.

What's happening in the picture above?