

Accountability

Directions: Read each statement below. Circle the statements that show accountability. Discuss why?

Verbally attacking someone who calls you out for what you did.

Taking the ball so no one can play after you were caught cheating.

Apologizing for cheating and not blaming others if they don't want to play anymore, but they do (because of your admission).

Admitting you knocked something off of the teacher's desk so the whole class doesn't get in trouble.

